A Message from Pastor Pat Pluss...

Dave and I watched four of our grandchildren for several hours this past Saturday. It included supper time. I made a dish of baked spaghetti, and added strawberries and cucumbers on the side. My plan was to served fresh toasted garlic bread as well. But while it was in the oven baking my five-year-old grandson pointed out his elbow was bleeding from a fall he took on our driveway. While I hurried to get a band aid, I forgot the bread was in the oven. Oh my, what a smoky, mess we had! Of course, it was the first thing the grandchildren told their parents...

Have you heard the saying, "I'm burned out"? Looking at my garlic bread certainly gives a visual illustration to the term. We know it refers to be worn out, or exhausted. Life can do that, so many responsibilities, and commitments, can really wear a person out.

Worship is a chance to gather and celebrate the greatness of our God who remains King no matter what we are going through, and while worship is our gift to God, we are blessed in the process! Worship can restore and invigorate us. Worship reminds us we are in the presence of the almighty and we are refreshed.

We can worship God anywhere – but we are told to gathering with other believers at the church to encourage each other, and pray for each other. Listen to Hebrews 10:25(msg) "Let's see how inventive we can be in encouraging love and helping out, not avoiding worshipping together as some do but spurring each other on!" Gathering for worship each week give us the opportunity to spur each other on to do good things and be spurred on ourselves!

So, if you are feeling burned out or even if you're not – please join us each week in worship as we celebrate the greatness of our God.

Blessings,
Pat

The New York Times bestselling account of a courageous eighteen-year-old from Nashville who gave up every comfort and convenience to become the adoptive mother to thirteen girls in Uganda.

Kisses from Katie invites readers on a journey of radical love down the red dirt roads of Uganda. You'll laugh and cry with Katie as she follows Jesus into the impossible and finds joy and beauty beneath the dust. Katie and her children delight in saying yes to the people God places in front of them and challenge readers to do the same, changing the world one person at a time.

Swiss UCC Consistory Meeting March 22, 2023 Via Zoom & In-Person

Attending In-Person: Nancy Galhouse, Shelly Johnson, Heidi Mondloch, Ron Legler, Gary Krahenbuhl, Rachel Baker

Attending Via Zoom: Pat Pluss, Jessica Swan, Tabatha Barnaby

Absent: Bonnie Klassy

Meeting called to order by Nancy Galhouse at 6:30 pm.

Approval of Agenda

The following item was added to the agenda – discussion of church greeters. Shelly Johnson motioned to approve updated agenda; second by Heidi Mondloch. Motion carried.

Approval of Last Month's Minutes

The minutes from our February 21, 2023 meeting were already approved via email on March 13, 2023 so that the updated paperwork could be filed with the Bank of New Glarus for authorized signers. Rachel Baker motioned to approve the minutes; second by Shelly Johnson. Motion carried.

Financial Report

Net income ending February 28 is -$480 which is better than the budgeted amount of -$2,592 because January and February are historically low income months.

General Fund current balance is $62,665. Property has a balance of $77,098.

As treasurer, Shelly Johnson requested Marlis Silver to produce a Weekly Giving spreadsheet including General, Property, and Restricted donations with all cemetery entries eliminated. Year-to-date total of weekly giving is $34,079.23.

Review of checks raised a question of why Quickbooks has an amount of 3,290.57. That is the total amount of the paychecks for three employees listed below the Quickbooks entry, not the cost of using Quickbooks.

Heidi Mondloch motioned to approve the checks; second by Tabatha Barnaby. Motion carried.

Family Promise

A Family Promise meeting will be held April 30 to update where the organization is going and if they will be potentially forging a relationship with Habitat for Humanity of Green County. They have a five-bedroom home in Monroe that accommodates residents, so hosting at Shepherd of the Hills is no longer needed. We currently have a balance of approximately $2,600 in our Family Promise account, and we must decide where the proceeds will be disbursed.

Planned Giving

Planned Giving recommends to Consistory that $100 be transferred from Innovative Ministries to the Bike Rodeo for the purchase of sunscreen and lip gloss with the Swiss UCC name on them. Shelly Johnson motioned to transfer $100 from Innovative Ministries to the Bike Rodeo; Nancy Galhouse second. Motion carried.

Secretarial Position

Rachel Baker moved that the secretarial position be shared between Jessica Swan recording for the Executive Committee meetings and Rachel Baker recording for the Consistory meetings. Second by Heidi Mondloch. Motion carried.

Requisition Procedures

Requisition procedures were discussed. They remain basically the same. Since we have abandoned the cemetery as of January 1, 2023, all vendors related to the cemetery have been removed from the blanket requisition spreadsheet and budgets. No amount has been budgeted for the cemetery. Motion by Rachel Baker, second by Nancy Galhouse to approve the list of vendors or organizations that are included in the blanket requisitions spreadsheet. Motion carried.

Consistory will be meeting Saturday, March 25, 8:30-11:30 am to brainstorm and plan the yearly calendar. Pat requested that we consider expectations for clergy in mind while brainstorming. Shelly Johnson later distributed a list of Restricted Funds to be discussed at the meeting.
